The 3rd Commandment: “What a Difference a Day Makes”

1. "Remember the Sabbath Day by keeping it holy." is the _____ Commandment.
2. According to Luther's Small Catechism, remembering the Sabbath Day by keeping it holy means -
  - a. That we should fear and love God we that we fit more rest and relaxation into our week.
  - b. That we should fear and love God that we should not despise preaching and God's Word.
  - c. That we should fear and love God that we should not despise the preaching and God's Word, but listen so that you can criticize it later with others.
  - d. That we should fear and love God that we should not despise the preaching and God's Word, but hold it sacred and gladly hear and learn from it.
3. Matthew 11:28-29 tells us that Jesus is our _____.
4. (T/F) As a church body, and because Jesus is the Lord of the Sabbath, we have decided to gather to celebrate His Resurrection.
5. (T/F) Martin Luther believed that the apostles changed the Sabbath day of rest from Saturday to Sunday.
