

Questions to Regularly Ask Your Kids

Make time this month to spend with each of your children and ask them some of these questions. Adapt them for the ages of your children. Make it a fun intentional date with your child or use coincidental time with your child intentionally. Either way – be intentional!

Questions to Ask Your Kids

1. What have been some of the best times you have had with your Dad/Mom this past year?
2. If you had to give me some advice on how to be a better Mom/Dad, what would it be and why?
3. If you and I could sit down and talk about ANYTHING...what would it be?
4. What are some of the things that are making you anxious, fearful or discouraged right now so I can pray for you. (depending on your child's age, you may have to define some of these terms to help your them answer)
5. What is something that you would like to do with me?
6. How can I help you grow in your love for God and in your ability to serve Him and live faithfully for Him?
7. What has been the best thing I have done this last year, or that we have done together as a family this past year that has helped you the most in your understanding of God and His love for you?
8. What would you say has been the biggest area of growth for you in the last year?
9. What have you learned about God/Christ/faith this last year that has blessed you?
10. If you could grow in any area in the next 12 months....where would you want it to be?
11. What do you think your Dad/Mom is most passionate about?

Prayer for Parents

Thank you, God for the gift it is to be a parent and to be a part of raising up the next generation of children. Help us remember you and all you have done for us, so that we make sure that we tell this to our kids, just as the Israelites in Deuteronomy 6:4-7 were taught to do for their families. We thank you for rescuing us from sin through the gift of your Son, Jesus, who took our sin upon Himself. It is His Holy Name we pray. Amen
