

*Cut these questions apart and put them in your "Let's Taco About It" holder.
Pull one out to start a fun discussion.*

If you could ask God one question, what would it be?

Tell me about a time when you had to be really brave.

If you could only do one thing for a whole day, what would you pick?

If you could fix just one problem in the world, what would you pick?

What is one way you saw God working today?

What's the best surprise you ever received?

How can we pray for you today?

If you could go back in time and spend a day with any Bible character, who would you pick and why?

If you could only keep 3 items from your room, which ones would you pick?

Is there someone in your life who you are struggling with? How can you show them the love of Jesus?

What is something you feel like you are talented at? How can you use that for God's glory?

What one thing would you really like to do as a family?

Which person would you most like to visit right now? Why?

What do you feel like children understand better than adults?

If you could talk to everyone in the entire world for 5 minutes, what would you want to say?

What is a characteristic you really admire about someone in this family? (Make sure everyone gets praised!)

What is your favorite Bible story and why?

What would you do if you were invisible for a day?

Would you rather be able to only whisper or only shout? Why?

What is your biggest fear?

Have you ever stuck up for someone who was getting picked on? If not, what will you do next time it happens?

When you are sad or angry, what do you do to deal with that? How can we help?

What is your favorite place to drive to in the car?

Can you think of good ways to tell your friends about Jesus?

When do you feel loved the most?