Our Savior's Way and Starbucks Start Saturday Reading Program

Teachers and staff from Our Savior's Open Arms Christian Child Development Center have teamed with Starbucks to provide a monthly reading program for the children of the community. The program kick-off was March 9 at Starbucks in the Broadlands Shopping Center and over 20 children enjoyed story hour along with free hot-chocolate and cookies. The next story hour times will be: 1:00 PM on Saturday, April 14 at Starbucks; and on May 12th at 1:00 PM, story hour will be held at Our Savior's Way and will be combined with craft-making – conveniently timed for Mothers Day! Starbucks will provide refreshments on both days.
